Members are reminded of Chapter 7 from the Localism Act 2011, particularly, Section 32 in respect of the "Discretion to withhold sensitive interests" (including their home address). If Members think they have 'sensitive interests' that they feel should be withheld from the public domain, they should forward a request to the South Kesteven District Council's Monitoring Officer (the MO). (legal@southkesteven.gov.uk) The request would need to include the reasons they wish to withhold this information from the public domain. The interest would still need to be declared but, subject to the MO approval, would not be shown in the public domain.
